GAMBERO ROSSO®

Dal 3 al 5 novembre 2020 si è svolta con grande successo, presso l'International Exhibition Center di Kiev, la prima tappa del Top Italian Wines Roadshow 2020/2021.

Nonostante la delicata situazione internazionale il meccanismo del Top Italian Wines Roadshow non si è fermato. Il Gambero Rosso e 47 aziende italiane hanno costituito l'evento principale di Wine&Spirit Ukraine, la più importante manifestazione di settore in Ucraina, un Paese strategico per il nostro export in Europa Orientale. Con tutte le precauzioni del caso - distanziamento, mascherine, disinfettanti - i più importanti esponenti del settore enogastronomico ucraino hanno avuto la possibilità unica di assaggiare una grande selezione di eccellenti etichette italiane e partecipare alle masterclass da noi organizzate.

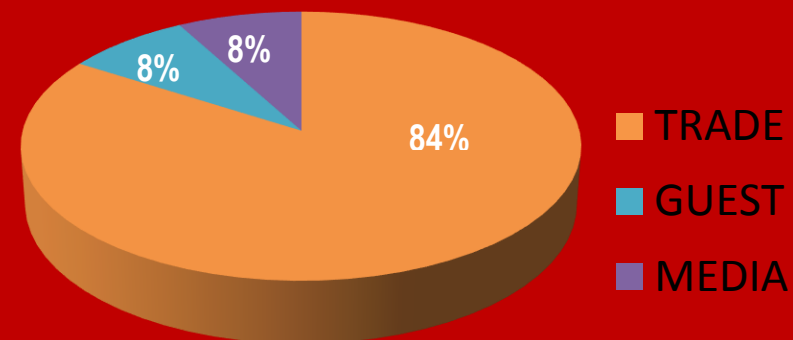

—VILLA SANDI CONTEMPORARY— WINE LIST AWARD

Non si può venire a Kiev senza fare una visita da Vino e Cucina, una super enoteca e un ristorante tradizionale italiano allo stesso tempo. La carta dei vini offre un'elegante selezione alla mescita, oltre a una raccolta approfondita e ricercata di etichette provenienti da tutta la Penisola, con un occhio di riguardo per la Toscana. Dalla cucina suggeriamo il saltimbocca alla romana con purea di patate o un vitello alla milanese fritto. Il servizio è gentile e molto professionale.

THE ROADSHOW MUST GO ON: GAMBERO ROSSO RIPARTE DALL'UCRAINA

TRE BICCHIERI 36 GAMBERO ROSSO

Dopo gli appuntamenti digitali dei mesi scorsi, il Gambero Rosso è tornato a portare il vino italiano nel mondo. Prima tappa Kyiv per una tre giorni molto attesa all'insegna di tutti i protocolli Covid. Con una certezza: la promozione all'estero è ancora possibile C'è l'abbiamo fatta! Nonostante la delicata situazione internazionale il meccanismo del Top Italian Wines Roadshow non si è fermato. Il Gambero Rosso e 45 aziende italiane hanno costituito l'evento principale di Wine&Spirit Ukraine, la più importante manifestazione di settore in Ucraina, un Paese strategico per il nostro export in Europa Orientale. Con tutte le precauzioni del caso - distanziamento, mascherine, disinfettanti - i più importanti esponenti del settore enogastronomico ucraino hanno avuto la possibilità unica, il 3, 4 e 5 novembre a Kyiv (non chiamatela Kiev! È questa ormai la dizione prevalente in lingua ucraina anche a livello internazionale) di assaggiare una grande selezione di eccellenti etichette italiane, e partecipare alle masterclass da noi organizzate. Inoltre, il 3 novembre sono stati consegnati anche i diplomi ai ristoranti wine bar e pizzerie della Guida Top Italian Restaurants in the World, che conta eccellenze anche nella capitale ucraina. Per noi e per le aziende presenti è stato il primo evento estero dopo il lockdown e la presentazione di Vini d'Italia 2021.

NEL 2019, ITALIA LEADER PER LE IMPORTAZIONI UCRAINE DI VINO

"L'Italia è un partner commerciale importante per l'Ucraina" ci ha detto Tony Corradini, direttore dell'Ice di Kyiv, partecipando all'evento del 3 novembre presso l'International Exhibition Center della capitale. "Siamo il sesto Paese mondiale per volume di scambi con l'Ucraina, e il terzo a livello europeo, dopo Germania e Polonia" ha proseguito Corradini. "Se guardiamo, poi, al vino siamo leader delle importazioni, e nel 2019 siamo arrivati a sfiorare i 100 milioni di euro di fatturato, quasi raddoppiando le cifre del 2017". Dietro di noi la Francia, con un fatturato di quasi il 50% inferiore, e poi la Germania.

"Il rapporto tra Italia e Ucraina è straordinario" ci conferma »

Italia primo fornitore di vino in Ucraina

Nel corso del 2019, sono aumentate le importazioni di vino in Ucraina sia dal mondo (+17%), che dall'Italia (+31%). Secondo il Servizio di statistica dell'Ucraina, le importazioni totali hanno raggiunto la cifra di 146,7 milioni di dollari statunitensi. L'import del primo semestre 2020 sfiora i 68 milioni di dollari.

L'Italia è il primo fornitore di vino in Ucraina con una quota di mercato delle importazioni del 32%. Gli altri principali fornitori sono: Georgia (16%), Francia (14%) e Spagna (10%). In termini di valore, il prezzo di vino importato in Ucraina nel 2019 è aumentato dell'11% rispetto al periodo analogo dell'anno precedente. Nel 2019, si registra una diminuzione del 9% del prezzo medio del vino importato dall'Italia.

Il prossimo calendario

Quella ucraina è solo la prima di altre tappe previste dal Roadshow del Gambero Rosso.

Il 24 novembre prossimo toccherà a San Pietroburgo, che ospiterà il Tre bicchieri world tour, mentre il 26 novembre si farà rotta su a Mosca, per poi proseguire il 2 dicembre a Vienna e il 4 dicembre a Praga. Il 30 novembre, invece, toccherà Vini d'Italia tour, che andrà in scena a Zungo.

In calendario anche una serie di appuntamenti digitali dagli Usa al Giappone, passando per Taiwan.

» Kateryna Bilotil, rappresentante del Ministero degli Esteri ucraino, intervenuta alla manifestazione "e in futuro non potrà che crescere. Il nostro Paese guarda sempre più ad Ovest per rapporti commerciali e collaborazioni strategiche. E l'Italia, con la sua cultura, i suoi paesaggi e i suoi prodotti esercita un grandissimo fascino".

UN PAESE IN FERMENTO

"L'evento del Gambero Rosso è stata una grande occasione di incontro e di confronto" ci ha detto Olga Pinevich-Todoruk, caporedattore della rivista Drink+, tra le più importanti del settore "L'Ucraina, e Kyiv in particolare, hanno una scena enogastronomica vivacissima, fatta di tante nuove aperture di ristoranti, molti dei quali di cucina internazionale e italiana in particolare. Il vostro Paese esercita un fascino incredibile sugli appassionati, che frequentano le tavole italiane e quando possono acquistano vini e prodotti alimentari italiani. Grazie al Gambero Rosso e grazie ai produttori italiani che ci hanno portato i loro vini in degustazione".

"C'è una scena dinamica e brillante a Kyiv e nelle città più importanti del Paese per quel che riguarda il settore enogastronomico" ci racconta Irina Gridina, notissima wine-expert e aspirante Master of Wine "le aperture continue di ristoranti con belle carte dei vini e di winebar lo confermano". Soprattutto, il winelover ucraino ha voglia di approfondire la conoscenza dei grandi vini internazionali, oltre che tifare per la nascente scena enologica locale, che ha il suo fulcro nella regione di Odesa.

"I corsi di degustazione si moltiplicano" a parlare è Kateryna Yuschenko, direttore della Ukrainian Wine and Spirit School, che aderisce ai protocolli internazionali del WSET "e il vino ita-

Nel 2021 verso l'accisa zero su import vino da Ue

Dal 2021, l'Ucraina dovrebbe azzerare le accise sul vino importato dall'Europa. Lo prevede l'applicazione dell'accordo di libero scambio Ue-Ucraina (Dcfta) in vigore dal 2017. Secondo l'intesa, per il vino europeo in entrata dovrebbero essere eliminate le tariffe che oscillano oggi tra 0,3 e 0,4 euro per litro, come ha annunciato nelle scorse settimane Yekaterina Zvereva, direttore sviluppo di Upoa, l'associazione ucraina dell'ortofrutta. In una dichiarazione ripresa dall'agenzia di stampa russa Interfax. L'accordo Dcfta prevede l'eliminazione progressiva di dazi su una serie di merci entro un periodo di sette anni dalla sua firma. - G.A.

liano è il più amato tra quelli di importazione".

"Cosa ci appassiona dell'Italia?" aggiunge Vitaly Kovach, figura di spicco (una sorta di wine guru) della scena enologica ucraina, nel suo fluente italiano frutto di un lungo periodo di lavoro nella ristorazione del nostro Paese "La ricchezza di vitigni, di stili, di territori diversissimi l'uno dall'altro - anche se ovviamente Piemonte e Toscana sono sempre, insieme al Prosecco, i grandi best-seller. Una conferma: il successo delle tre masterclass, organizzate dal Gambero Rosso, alle quali ho avuto l'onore di collaborare, che hanno fatto registrare il tutto esaurito il 4 e il 5 novembre".

CANTINE ITALIANE PRONTE A RIPARTIRE

Anche la campana dei rappresentanti delle aziende suona positivamente. Abbiamo chiesto un commento a Gabriele Pezzuto, direttore export Europa della piemontese Beni di Bataiolo. "Organizzazione perfetta da parte del Gambero Rosso, l'evento era importante, era una tappa fondamentale in questo momento difficile. Abbiamo trovato un importatore, e svilupperemo molto questo mercato, ne sono convinto. Essere arrivati nel Paese in un momento così complesso a causa della pandemia ha avuto un grande impatto sugli ucraini. E le Masterclass del Gambero Rosso hanno fatto il resto...".

Il mondo del vino italiano, insomma, non vuole e non può fermarsi, e il Gambero Rosso è in prima linea accanto alle aziende. Questo è stato un evento cruciale, che dimostra come con le dovute precauzioni la promozione all'estero - oltre che essere fondamentale per la sopravvivenza delle aziende - è possibile. L'accoglienza che abbiamo ricevuta da Kyiv e dall'Ucraina è stata fantastica. Siamo pronti ad affrontare nuove sfide con il nuovo anno.

STORIES

THE ROADSHOW MUST GO ON: GAMBERO ROSSO STARTS AGAIN FROM UKRAINE

by Marco Sabellico

GAMBERO ROSSO 16 NOVEMBER 2020

After the recent digital appointments, Gambero Rosso has resumed bringing Italian wine to the world. First stop is Kyiv, for a long-awaited three day jaunt adhering to strict Covid protocols. One this is certain: promotion abroad is still possible

We did it! Despite the delicate international situation, the cogs of the Top Italian Wines Roadshow mechanism never stopped. Gambero Rosso and 45 Italian wineries constituted the main event of Wine & Spirit Ukraine 2020, the most important trade event in Ukraine, which is a strategic country for our exports to Eastern Europe. With all the necessary precautions - social distancing, masks, sanitizing gel and all - the most important exponents of the Ukrainian food and wine sector had the unique opportunity, on November 3, 4 and 5 in Kyiv (don't call it Kiev! As this is now the prevailing diction in Ukrainian language, also internationally) to taste a great selection of excellent Italian labels, and participate in the master classes we organised. In addition, on November 3 diplomas were also delivered to restaurants, wine bars and pizzerias by Top Italian Restaurants in the World Guide, which also counts excellent representatives in the Ukrainian capital. For us and for the companies present it was the first foreign event after the lockdown and the presentation of the Vini d'Italia 2021 guide.

IN 2019, ITALY WAS THE LEADER IN UKRAINIAN WINE IMPORTS

"Italy is a very important trading partner for Ukraine," Tony Corradini, director of the Kyiv ICE told us, attending the event on November 3 at the capital's International Exhibition Center. "We are the sixth country in the world in terms of trade volume with Ukraine, and the third at European level, after Germany and Poland," continued Corradini. "If we look at wine, we are leading in imports, and in 2019 we came close to 100 million euros in turnover, almost doubling the figures of 2017." Behind us comes France, with a turnover nearly 50% lower, and then Germany.

"The relationship between Italy and Ukraine is extraordinary- »

Italy is the first wine supplier in Ukraine

During 2019, wine imports to Ukraine increased both from the world (+17%) and from Italy (+31%). According to the Statistics Service of Ukraine, total imports reached the figure of 146.7 million US dollars. Imports in the first half of 2020 are close to 68 million dollars.

Italy is the leading wine supplier in Ukraine with an import market share of 32%. The other main suppliers are: Georgia (16%), France (14%) and Spain (10%). In terms of value, the price of wine imported into Ukraine in 2019 increased by 1% compared to the same period of the previous year. In 2019, there was a 9% decrease in the average price of wine imported from Italy.

Upcoming calendar

The Ukrainian leg is only the first of many stages of the Gambero Rosso Roadshow. On November 24th it will travel to St. Petersburg, which will host the Tre Bicchieri world tour, while on November 26th it will head up to Moscow, and then continue on December 2nd to Vienna, and December 4th to Prague. On November 30, however, the Vini d'Italia tour will be held, and will be staged in Zurich. A series of digital appointments from the US to Japan, via Taiwan, are also scheduled. <https://www.gamberorossointernational.com/events/>

ry," confirms Kateryna Bilotil, representative of the Ukrainian Foreign Ministry, who attended the event "and in the future it will only grow. Our country is increasingly looking to the West for commercial relations and strategic collaborations. And Italy, with its culture, its landscapes and its products, is fascinating."

A COUNTRY THAT'S BUZZING WITH ENERGY

"The Gambero Rosso event was a great opportunity for socialization and discussion," said Olga Pinevich-Todoruk, editor-in-chief of Drink+ magazine, one of the most important in the sector "Ukraine, and Kyiv in particular, have a lively food and wine scene, made up of a plethora of new restaurant openings, many of which are international with Italian cuisine in particular. Your country exerts an incredible fascination on aficionados, who frequent Italian tables and when they can buy Italian wines and food products. Thanks to Gambero Rosso and thanks to the Italian producers who brought us their wines for tasting."

"There is a dynamic and brilliant scene in Kyiv and in the most important cities of the country in regards to the food and wine sector," in the words of Irina Gridina, well-known wine-expert and aspiring Master of Wine. "The constant opening of restaurants with beautiful wine lists and wine bars confirm this." Above all, the Ukrainian wine lovers want to deepen their knowledge of the great international wines, as well as cheer for the nascent local wine scene, which has its hub in the Odessa region.

"Tasting courses are multiplying," according to Kateryna Yu-

In 2021, moving towards zero excise duty on wine imports from the EU

From 2021, Ukraine should eliminate excise duties on wine imported from Europe. This happens due to the implementation of the EU-Ukraine free trade agreement (Dcfta) in force since 2017. According to the agreement, tariffs that currently range between 0.3 and 0.4 euros should be eliminated for incoming European wine per liter, as announced in recent weeks by Yekaterina Zvereva, development director of Upoa, Ukrainian fresh produce association, in a statement divulged by Russian news agency Interfax. The DCFTA agreement features the phasing out of duties on a range of goods within a period of seven years from its signature. — G.A.

schenko, director of the Ukrainian Wine and Spirit School, which adheres to the international protocols of the WSET, "and Italian wine is the most loved among those imported." "What of Italy are we most passionate about?" adds Vitaly Kovach, a leading figure (a sort of wine guru) of the Ukrainian wine scene, in his fluent Italian, "the result of a long period of work in the dining field in Italy, 'It's the wealth of grape varieties, styles, and territories that are so many and so very different - although obviously Piedmont and Tuscany are always, together with Prosecco, the great bestsellers.'"

ITALIAN WINERIES READY TO RESTART

Even the bell of company representatives rings positively. We asked Gabriele Pezzuto, European export director of the Piedmontese Beni di Bataiolo for a comment. "Perfect organization by Gambero Rosso, the event was important, it was a milestone in this difficult moment. We found an importer, and I'm confident that we will greatly develop this market. Having arrived in the country at such a complex time due to the pandemic had a great impact on Ukrainians. And Gambero Rosso Master classes did the rest."

The world of Italian wine, in short, does not want and cannot stop. Gambero Rosso is on the front line side by side with wineries. This was a crucial event, which demonstrates how with the necessary precautions, promotion abroad - as well as being essential for the survival of such companies - is still possible. The welcome we received in Kyiv and Ukraine was fantastic. We are ready to face new challenges with the new year.
