PRESS RELEASE

Tre Bicchieri Reloaded in Berlin

The Gambero Rosso tasting is a hot ticket event in town

Kick off: June 25, 2:00 pm, Hotel de Rome

It's time for a new start, a new beginning. Charged more than ever and ready to face in-person meetings and tastings, the Tre Bicchieri World Tour initiates from the nerve centre of Europe, Berlin, once again at Hotel De Rome, an elegant hotel in Mitte. The event is scheduled on Friday, June 25; the walk-around tasting will take place from 2 pm to 7 pm for the trade and media, and from 4 pm to 7 pm for the winelovers. The programme includes two masterclasses guided by the editors-in-chief of Vini d'Italia guidebook. The first seminar will be live at 12:30 pm featuring the 12 Special Awarded Wines of the guide. The second masterclass, Italy in a Nutshell, is scheduled at 3:30 pm collecting wines from North, Center, and South of Italy.

The Gambero Rosso day in town will be a symbol of true rebirth of Italian wine, food, and culture. After Berlin, the tour will move to Russia, landing in Moscow on July 6, and in St. Petersburg on July 8.

Germany is the most important European market for Italian wine, it is no coincidence that even the terrible 2020 marks a surprising increase in value (+2,5%) when it comes to imported Italian wines, compared to the data of 2020. The resumption of the tour is entirely dedicated to the Tre Bicchieri winners, i.e. the best wines in Italy according to the Gambero Rosso Guide, which has reached the 34th edition of the Vini d'Italia guide. Vini d'Italia 2021 is the result of a year of work by an expert team of tasters who have travelled the country interviewing producers and visiting wineries. The guide reviews 2,645 wineries and a total of 24,638 wines, awarding the classic scores ranging from 1 to 3 Glasses according to the quality of the label. This year, the record number of 467 Tre Bicchieri have emerged. The Gambero symbol of wine excellence, Tre Bicchieri (three glasses), has become the benchmark award and an unquestioned reference point, a guarantee of premium quality all over the world. It has even been chosen as the criteria for access into some of the most important wine monopolies in the world.

The name Gambero Rosso was borrowed from the tavern where the wicked Fox and Cat took Pinocchio to dinner in the famous 19th century children's book by Carlo Collodi. In 1986, Gambero Rosso made its first appearance as a food-and-wine focused weekly supplement in the daily newspaper, Il Manifesto. The year after, the first Gambero Rosso wine guide was printed. In 1999, the first thematic television channel in Europe, Gambero Rosso Channel, was founded, soon followed by the Città del gusto, the schools, a master program, and recently, the public stock offering in November 2015. Gambero Rosso is a multimedia company that offers magazines, books, guides, a website, a webtv, smartphone applications, and a television channel – Sky 412. The Vini d'Italia Wine Guide is translated into Chinese, Japanese, English and German. Since 1987, Gambero Rosso has represented Italian-made food and wine, testing and certifying the quality of products, telling the stories behind the flavors and traditions of the Peninsula.

All the events will take place under the safety rules and regulation during covid-19 pandemic keeping the health of the exhibitors and visitors in the first place
