About Gambero Rosso

Gambero Rosso, the most important multimedia brand in the Italian food and wine world, celebrates its 36 years of activity. In 1986, Gambero Rosso took its first steps as an insert in a daily newspaper, but by the next year its first Guida dei Vini went to print, the 1988 edition. After that, dozens of guides and books followed. In 1999, Gambero Rosso Channel, the first thematic television channel in Europe, began broadcasting. Shortly after, a constellation of the Città del Gusto sites was founded in Italy, followed by Gambero Rosso Academy in the rest of the world, with cooking classes for professionals and amateurs, along with courses about wine, journalism master programs, and seminars on restaurant management. Recently, the company was launched on the stock market. Meanwhile, a fascination with Italy has been growing in the world, a longing for its authentic products, and Gambero Rosso events organized around the globe have multiplied. Since the first ones in 1990, the number of events on our international calendar has grown to over 40.

Consorzio Vini di Romagna

Wine speaks the language of a land. Emilia Romagna, a lush scarf that is lulled between the sea and the Apennines, rippling through hills and valleys designed by the patterns of orchards and vineyards alternating with farmhouses, villages, towers, and fortresses. Life has a particular flavour in Emilia Romagna. It holds a genuine passion for wine, fruit of the earth and hard work, and the earnest smile of the people who produce it. It possesses the character and culture of the land: open, welcoming, hospitable. And it holds the knowledge of the wine growers who, having learnt to manage the entire wine cycle over time, have developed it into a distinct excellence. From the vocation of a territory to the tradition of a culture, the Wines of Emilia Romagna narrate their true story, their places of origin, and the personality of those who live in them. The Consorzio will offer an extensive tasting in New York, ranging among the most celebrated wines from the area such as Sangiovese Doc and Albana Docg wines, plus a guided seminar scheduled at 11am.
