Consozio Tutela Vini del Sannio

The Consorzio Tutela vini del Sannio is an organization that focuses on the protection, the promotion and enhances the knowledge of Campania’s most important denominations, the DOCG Aglianico del Taburno, the PDO Sannio and Falanghina del Sannio and PGI Benevento. An entire corner will be dedicated for this special guest in order to bring the taste of Campania terroirs in the glass. The Taburno and the Matese are two imposing mountain groups that enclose the enchanting green expanse of the Telesina valley. Whoever crosses it on the way to Benevento is awestruck by this territory of hills, olive trees and dense woods. But in this landscape, the central character is the vineyard. Vines grow everywhere on the hills of the Benevento province, the principle winegrowing area of the Campania region. 3000 hectares are planted with falanghina grapes, that produces fragrant sparkling wines, elegant white wines, and complex dessert wines.
