Consorzio Tutela Vini d'Abruzzo

The Consorzio di Tutela dei Vini d'Abruzzo (Consortium for the Protection of Wines of Abruzzo) is a non-profit association, made up of all the entities forming part of the control system, which aims to protect, enhance, and take care of the interests relating to the controlled designations of origin of the regional territory. There is no region in Europe like Abruzzo where more than 30% of the territory is protected by four parks (three national and one regional) and a dozen nature reserves and protected areas. It is therefore no coincidence that the Consortium, which has been protecting one of the most authentic resources of the territory for years, has chosen the eagle as its symbol: an animal with a strong protective instinct, as tenacious as the people of Abruzzo.

About Gambero Rosso

Gambero Rosso is the world's leading authority on Italian wine, publishing the Vini d'Italia wine guide since 1987 and building a multi-media empire that includes restaurant, bar, café, street food, produce, pasta and olive oil guides, as well as books, magazines, apps and yearly world tours. In 1999, the first wine television channel in Europe, Gambero Rosso Channel, was founded (it is still the only one in the world), followed by Città del Gusto sites around Italy offering gala tastings and courses in wine, gastronomic journalism and cooking at both amateur and professional levels.
